ELEVENTH YEAR

EAST LIVERPOOL, OHIO, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1895.

TWO CENTS

THE MCKINLEY CLUB

Makes Arrangements For the Governor's Reception.

WILL ESCORT HIM TO THE RINK

The Members of the Club Met in Special Session Last Night and Perfected Business—Will Escort the Distinguished Guest From Colonel Taylor's Residence to the Rink—Wellsville McKinley Club Invited to Participate—A Grand Time Assured.

The McKinley club members turned out in full force at the special meeting held in their rooms last night in order to perfect arrangements for the proper reception of their distinguished guest and leader. President Walter B. Hill occupied the chair, and stated that the reason the special meeting had been called was to see that affairs were so outlined as to avoid confusion, and to make the reception an assured success. It was announced that the governor will arrive on the 6:10 train Friday evening and will at once be taken to the residence of Colonel John N. Taylor.

The members of the McKinley club will assemble at an early hour at their rooms on Fifth street on Friday evening, where they will be supplied with red lights, banners and badges, be formed into line by officers assigned to that duty, march to the residence of Colonel Taylor and escort the governor to the rink.

It was resolved last night that an invitation be extended to the Wellsville McKinley club to participate, and it is understood that they will turn out in full force and take a hand in the parade. The Wellsville club has a strong membership, and they will no doubt present a fine appearance, and it behoves every member of our home club to be in line, in order that we may not be thrown completely in the shade.

A committee of three was appointed last night for the purpose of conferring with the Central Republican committee. These committees will meet in session at city hall tonight.

A committee was also appointed to attend to the procuring of badges and other routine business.

It was also resolved that the McKinley club shall turn out in a body on next Monday night and proceed to Wellsville, in order to take part in the meeting to be addressed by Messrs. Taylor and Young. It is earnestly desired that every member of the organization shall be present on the night in question and show our brethren down the river that East Liverpool is deeply in earnest in the present campaign, and that her voters intend to do their full duty at the polls.

Tomorrow night will be the regular meeting night of the McKinley club in this city, and not a member of the organization should be absent. There may be matters of especial importance to attend to, and you should see to it that you bear your part in all essentials.

Governor McKinley, it is understood, will only remain in East Liverpool until Saturday morning, taking his departure on the 8 o'clock train, in order to fill engagements elsewhere.

By the way, gentle readers, we would suggest that you reach the rink in good time on Friday night, if you desire favorable seats, where you can hear to advantage, as the indications are that a mighty multitude will assemble on that occasion.

CLARKSON NOTES.

An Interesting Budget of News From Our Rural Neighbor.

Reverend Patterson, of the theological seminary, Allegheny, Pa., supplied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church here yesterday because of the indisposition of the pastor, Rev. W. F. McKee.

Miss Cora Bell has gone to the home of her parents in Franklinville, Md.

Miss Sadie Logan attended the national convention of the Women's Christian Temperance union at Baltimore, Md., last week and expected to visit friends in Pennsylvania on her return trip.

Mrs. P. Gaston, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Saint and Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Moore attended the Moore reunion at the residence of William Moore, near Cannon's Mill, Thursday.

School began Monday, the 14th, in the New Harmony district, with Wilson V. Myers, of North Georgetown, at the helm.

Mrs. Clark Warrick visited her mother, Mrs. E. Aldorffe, Friday.

Mr. W. H. Owens, Henry Burlingham, Alfred T. Moore, W. C. Warrick and J. R. Hastings attended the Republican meeting at Rogers Thursday.

Lawyer Brookes, of East Liverpool,

D. J. Smith, of Mt. Pisgah, and Emmet Farr, of East Carmel, addressed an audience of intelligent Republicans Saturday evening in this place.

Mrs. Albright, who resides with her daughter, Mrs. Matthew Warrick, of this place, is suffering with that foe of woman-kind, cancer, and is failing rapidly.

Undertaker Warrick had three funerals last week, a Mr. Orr, of East Carmel, a small child of Mr. and Mrs. Caldwell, of Cannon's Mill, and one of Mr. and Mrs. Saler, near this place.

STOP THE THIEVES.

Young Rascals Have Been Engaged in Very Bad Work.

For some time past there have been articles missed at the rooms of the Young Men's Christian association, this city, the petty thieves watching the parties when they took off their outer garments, preparatory to going through athletic exercises, and then going through the clothes and stealing whatever valuables they could secure. Members have frequently missed towels, slippers, cuff buttons and other articles. Physical Director Morris was a victim the first night he came here, unguardedly hanging up his coat, with a snug little sum in the pocket thereof, and the money was missing when he again claimed the garment and no clue was had to the perpetrator of the theft. Last night a young man missed a small sum of money and did not propose to submit quietly to such an outrage, and secured the services of Marshal Gill, who took the suspected youth to the mayor's office and indulged in a private conversation with him, giving him to understand that there was full proof against him, and that the very best thing he could do would be to make restitution and promise solemnly never again to commit such an offense. The accused boy stoutly denied his guilt and was finally permitted to depart, but was cautioned to appear and settle matters before the case was pushed to the extreme. It is claimed now that the accused boy was seen to take the money, and that two witnesses will swear to the fact. Marshall Gill was called away, for the time being, on an important case, but will look after this when he returns. Certain boys, of bad character, who have the reputation of being common thieves, have been loitering about the association rooms for some time, and they will be warned to keep away in the future.

WIFE BEATER.

The Fellow Will Do Well If He Desists In the Future.

About the meanest man on earth, if a creature who indulges in such infamous work can be called a man, is the fellow who indulges in wife beating, and while we are ever advocates of law and order, we would not array ourselves in sackcloth and ashes in case indignant citizens should give the perpetrator of such cowardice a snug suit of tar and feathers and a dip in the Ohio river, with a message for him to make himself conspicuous by his absence from the presence of decent and manly men. Living on Ravine street, East Liverpool, is a creature who has been known to indulge in wife beating on several occasions of late, and this morning the offense was again committed. Forbearance has ceased to be a virtue, and indignant residents of the community in which the coward lives, came to the News Review office at dinner time and laid in complaint, desiring that the fellow shall be given a last warning through the medium of this communication, vowing that an offense of the kind in the future will meet with hot and merited punishment. The visitors to this office state that the wife is a good and true woman, and is not guilty of anything which should cause her husband to act in such a brutal and heathenish manner.

TAX INQUISITORS.

Neat Little Sums Gathered in by These Officials.

These inquisitors have brought to light very much unlisted, valuable property throughout the state, property untaxed and unrepresented on the tax list, until the inquisitors got their work in, benefiting the state largely and putting snug sums of money in the pockets of said inquisitors, as the Morganthal law gives one-fourth of the money thus secured to the state to the official ferreting the matter out. So far, several million of dollars have been added to the tax duplicate. In Cuyahoga county alone, $4,304,640 worth of unlisted property was unearthed. This amount would be taxable in the sum of $120,916.17, and the inquisitor pockets $30,240.03 as his share. The Columbiana county inquisitor will receive $10,219.83. We take these figures from the Cleveland Leader.

THE LADIES AUXILIARY

The Physical Culture Class a Great Success.

CAN WE HAVE A NEW BUILDING?

The Ladies are Determined That the $700 Subscribed Shall be Paid, and Good Citizens Will Back Them Up—Will the Humanity Loving Men and Women of East Liverpool Compass the Erection of a Building Dedicated to the Y. M. C. Association.

The culture of the physical powers is an absolute necessity. These muscles of ours require looking after, from an intelligent health standpoint. Our lady readers, if they test the matter, within the bounds of reason and common sense, will find that the above statement is a truism—a fact. The Ladies Auxiliary to the Young Men's Christian association has rendered it possible to compass this physical culture at but a shadow of expense. Think of it! The ordinary teacher, male or female, will charge a scholar from 35 to 50 cents a lesson. The Young Men's Christian association, through the Ladies Auxiliary, will give you 104 lessons per annum, two lessons per week, for the sum of one single, solitary dollar. Think of it! Less than one cent per lesson. All that is necessary for the applicant to do is to join the auxiliary, pay the sum of one dollar, and she has the privileges of the physical culture class accorded her. The question naturally arises, how can this be done at such an insignificant figure? Here is your explanation. Last year the Ladies Auxiliary agreed to raise the sum of $500 for the Young Men's Christian association. Backed by the generosity of a charity-loving public, the ladies accomplished this. This year the ladies promised the sum of $700. The board of directors of the Young Men's Christian association gave the ladies the privilege of the use of the gymnasium for one afternoon per week, afterwards making it two afternoons. Lately, a competent physical director was engaged, and the physical culture class was held out as an inducement to become members of the auxiliary. The feature took at once, and the membership has grown rapidly. Each member is expected to do her part in raising the $700 promised, and it can be accomplished with ease, if each individual puts her shoulder to the wheel. The saving of our young men is a grand feature, and the true women of the auxiliary can be proud of the work they are doing, in the name of the Master. Glorious success attend their efforts.

Ladies of East Liverpool, you love your brothers and sons, and you are deeply interested in their welfare, both in this world and the world to come. And you are, to a certain extent, your brother's keeper. You can be instrumental, in a measure, through your affiliation with the Ladies Auxiliary, in making the Young Men's Christian association of East Liverpool a pronounced success, helping pay the expenses of rental, lights, gymnasium material, reading matter, etc., features which are absolutely necessary to attract and hold young men, and keep them aloof from visiting saloons and club rooms devoted to drinking and gaming.

There is another feature now on the carpet, which is receiving attention at the hands of business men in East Liverpool, and that is the erection of a Young Men's Christian association building. It has been talked of for years past, but practical efforts have never been centralized in that direction; everything has ended in talk. Good men and true women are now agitating the matter seriously, and it is to be hoped that the agitation will never cease until the building becomes an accomplished fact. Speed the day.

WANT LARGER SEWERS.

Residents Claim That They Are an Absolute Necessity.

Residents of Minerva street and lower Wucherer's addition are condemning the action of council in placing sewers in Minerva street to drain Tanyard run, stating that they are entirely too small to permit of the passage of refuse and accumulated debris that is washed down from the hills whenever there is a heavy fall of rain. They say that the sewers will become clogged up and the water will raise and flood the entire district in the neighborhood of the green house. The necessity of larger sewers is very apparent, and if the city officials watch that point, the city may possibly save damage suits.

Erred Again.

A local paper erred again last night in an account of the filing of the demurrer of Harriet Woodburn, suing

Della Morris and the city jointly by reason of injuries received by falling into a defectively-covered coal vault. The sheet said that in the solicitor's demurrer he throws all the liability on Mrs. Morris. The demurrer does not state this at all. The city is made the party defendant for the alleged reason of negligence. The defendants file both joint and separate demurrers on the grounds that the separate causes of action against the several defendants are improperly joined and petition does not state facts sufficient to justify action being taken against the city. Should that demurrer be sustained, the solicitor says that it would have the effect of compelling the plaintiff to file new petitions against the defendants; the plaintiff would not be in court properly and the second ground should be sustained by the court; the plaintiff would have to amend or else claim be forever shut out. If a demurrer is sustained on both grounds in favor of the city, "that, in my judgment," says Clark, "ends the case against the city."

A COWARDLY DEED.

Two Brutal Butties Savagely Attack an Old Man.

Last evening, between 5 and 6 o'clock, at Sullivan's saloon, Sixth street, Dan Gourley and "Bull Dog" Owens made a savage and uncalled for attack upon Thomas Pearce, an old tailor residing in the West End. The old man was knocked down twice and otherwise maltreated. Officers Whan and McMillen succeeded in gathering in Gourley, and incarcerating him in the cooler, and were on the outlook for "Bull Dog" this morning, but had failed to scoop him up to the hour of 10 o'clock. Witnesses assert that the attack was a very cowardly and unprovoked one.

WHY NOT DECORATE.

Republicans Who Can Should Fling Out Old Glory.

A prominent and enthusiastic Republican of East Liverpool suggests that those who have bunting or flags in their possession, should fling them out to the breeze on Friday next, to do honor to our illustrious guest. We fall in line with this suggestion and urge all who possibly can do so to let "Old Glory" be unfurled, particularly along the route from Colonel John N. Taylor's residence to the rink, the line of march over which the McKinley club will proceed when escorting the governor to the speaking point.

Board of Commerce Meet.

The Ohio state board of commerce will hold their annual meeting at Columbus on Nov. 13. The election of a president and vice president will take place, and reports of standing committees will be received. The following important topics will be discussed: Reforms in municipal government, a just and wise system of taxation, water ways of the state, ship canal from lakes to ocean, pure food products and a few other topics of lesser importance. John J. Purinton is secretary of the organization.

O'Hooligan's Masquerade.

Gallagher, West and Watson, a triplet of comedians of rare genius, will appear at the Grand tonight. Do you want to enjoy a good laugh? If you do, you will see these triplets, as they form a combination which would cause a wooden Indian to shout in glee. The whole company bear the reputation of being artists in their specialties, and come to us with the brightest and best of recommendations.

Bound Over.

The case of Mrs. Carroll alias Mrs. Bashor alias Mrs. Fleming for assault and battery, charges against her preferred by Mrs. Clark, was tried before Mayor Gilbert this afternoon. The testimony given by some witnesses conflicted and consequently the mayor deemed it expedient to turn the case over to the grand jury and bound Mrs. Carroll over in the sum of $100.

Bitten by a Savage Dog.

Miss Susie Potts, of Third street, was bitten by a dog on Second street this morning. Peter Murray telephoned for an officer to come and shoot the vicious animal, but for some reason no officer appeared. Much indignation was expressed that the animal was not dispatched.

A New Club.

The Tourist club has been bought out by Lawrence Allison and other parties. The club will be known as the Columbian Athletic club, and starts out under the most favorable auspices.

Cyclers Leaving Us.

Thomas Eddy and Joe Houk, local cyclists, left today for Elmira, N. Y. George Hale leaves for the same place tomorrow to locate for the winter.

THAT YOUNG FORGER

Makes an Attempt to Escape From Durance Vile.

AND IS ALMOST SUCCESSFUL

Officers Earl and Jennings Interfere With His Little Side Issue and Present Him With Bracelets—The Prisoner Taken to Pennsylvania Today by Sheriff Shaner. The Local Bank Will Not Prosecute.

At three o'clock this morning Officer Earl, who is on night duty, made an interesting discovery in Clerk Hanley's office, and prevented a prisoner from securing much desired liberty.

Withrup, in the cooler on the charge of forgery, may be a verdant youth and unaccustomed to crime and its surroundings, as this is said to have been but his second offense, the Pennsylvania had work being his initiatory step; but if such is the case, he is certainly a cool and ready customer, and will in time, unless he repents of his evil ways and reforms, make his mark in the criminal world.

Last night he evidently came to the conclusion that he no longer desired to remain in durance vile, and therefore resolved to do all in his power to seek new fields of venture. Securing a bar of iron from one of the downy couches in his cell, he used the same as a lever to pry off a cell bar and thus gained access to the corridor. In some unknown manner he had also succeeded in securing a spike, and with this as a tool he went to work upon the brick wall, and it did not take a long time for him to open up a way into Clerk Hanley's domain. Up to this time the prisoner's course had been plain sailing, and the indications were that he would soon be free. Unfortunately for him, Officers Earl and Jennings were wandering about, and Earl sauntered into the clerk's office, on a tour of general observation, when his attention was attracted by the noise made, and Withrup was discovered crouched on top of the safe. The officers soon had the youngster handcuffed and in safe quarters, with aspirations for liberty rudely and effectually nipped in the bud.

Sheriff Shaner, of Venango county, Pa., arrived in East Liverpool today, seeking the young forger, as he is wanted in the Keystone state, charged with uttering forged paper to the extent of $80. Withrup waived any rights he may possess in the case, and stated that he was willing to go with the sheriff without requisition papers being secured. He was taken to Smith's Ferry today by Sheriff Shaner and Marshal Gill, where the necessary endorsement of warrant was attended to by a magistrate and was afterward escorted to the noon train and sheriff and prisoner sped away for Emlenton, Pa., where Withrup will be taken before a magistrate and bound over, as it is thought, by Sheriff Shaner, that the father of the accused will not interest himself in defending his son's case. Withrup, Sr., is well-to-do, and comfortably situated in so far as this world's goods are concerned, but is not very bright and therefore not very pushing in business affairs.

Withrup, Jr., claims that his father made him a present of the bicycle which he was riding when he reached East Liverpool, but Sheriff Shaner believes that the wheel was stolen by the prisoner.

It is understood that the bank officials interested in this city will not prosecute their case against young Withrup.

Chief Gill, in speaking of young Withrup today, says that the air of innocence, which is one of his characteristics, is assumed to suit the occasion, and his belief is that he is a cool, keen and clever young rascal.

A Special Meeting.

A special meeting of the Trades and Labor council has been called. All members are requested to be present as there is business of importance to transact tonight.

Will Lead the Meeting.

Capt. Dick Albright will lead the meeting at the Salvation Army, having arrived in the city on the 5 o'clock morning train from Cleveland.

Hughes' Trial.

The trial of Harry Hughes for selling liquor in Pennsylvania was to have been tried in Beaver yesterday, but was postponed indefinitely.

Wire Broken.

The street car wire was down at Jethro this morning, delaying traffic about a half an hour. Nancy Hanks repaired the break.

No Better.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Ketcham, who were hurt in the accident on Monday, are no better today.

Last evening, between 5 and 6 o'clock, at Sullivan's saloon, Sixth street, Dan Gourley and "Bull Dog" Owens made a savage and uncalculated attack upon Thomas Pearce, an old tailor residing in the West End. The old man was knocked down twice and otherwise maltreated. Officers Whan and McMillen succeeded in gathering in Gourley, and incarcerating him in the cooler, and were on the outlook for "Bull Dog" this morning, but had failed to scoop him up to the hour of 10 o'clock. Witnesses assert that the attack was a very cowardly and unprovoked one.

WHY NOT DECORATE.

Republicans Who Can Should Fling Out Old Glory.

A prominent and enthusiastic Republican of East Liverpool suggests that those who have bunting or flags in their possession, should fling them out to the breeze on Friday next, to do honor to our illustrious guest. We fall in line with this suggestion and urge all who possibly can do so to let "Old Glory" be unfurled, particularly along the route from Colonel John N. Taylor's residence to the rink, the line of march over which the McKinley club will proceed when escorting the governor to the speaking point.

Board of Commerce Meet.

The Ohio state board of commerce will hold their annual meeting at Columbus on Nov. 13. The election of a president and vice president will take place, and reports of standing committees will be received. The following important topics will be discussed: Reforms in municipal government, a just and wise system of taxation, water ways of the state, ship canal from lakes to ocean, pure food products and a few other topics of lesser importance. John J. Purinton is secretary of the organization.

O'Hooligan's Masquerade.

Gallagher, West and Watson, a triplet of comedians of rare genius, will appear at the Grand tonight. Do you want to enjoy a good laugh? If you do, you will see these triplets, as they form a combination which would cause a wooden Indian to shout in glee. The whole company bear the reputation of being artists in their specialties, and come to us with the brightest and best of recommendations.

Bound Over.

The case of Mrs. Carroll alias Mrs. Bashor alias Mrs. Fleming for assault and battery, charges against her preferred by Mrs. Clark, was tried before Mayor Gilbert this afternoon. The testimony given by some witnesses conflicted and consequently the mayor deemed it expedient to turn the case over to the grand jury and bound Mrs. Carroll over in the sum of $100.

Bitten by a Savage Dog.

Miss Susie Potts, of Third street, was bitten by a dog on Second street this morning. Peter Murray telephoned for an officer to come and shoot the vicious animal, but for some reason no officer appeared. Much indignation was expressed that the animal was not dispatched.

A New Club.

The Tourist club has been bought out by Lawrence Allison and other parties. The club will be known as the Columbian Athletic club, and starts out under the most favorable auspices.

Cyclers Leaving Us.

Thomas Eddy and Joe Houk, local cyclists, left today for Elmira, N. Y. George Hale leaves for the same place tomorrow to locate for the winter.

THAT YOUNG FORGER

Makes an Attempt to Escape From Durance Vile.

AND IS ALMOST SUCCESSFUL

Officers Earl and Jennings Interfere With His Little Side Issue and Present Him With Bracelets—The Prisoner Taken to Pennsylvania Today by Sheriff Shaner. The Local Bank Will Not Prosecute.

At three o'clock this morning Officer Earl, who is on night duty, made an interesting discovery in Clerk Hanley's office, and prevented a prisoner from securing much desired liberty.

Withrup, in the cooler on the charge of forgery, may be a verdant youth and unaccustomed to crime and its surroundings, as this is said to have been but his second offense, the Pennsylvania bad work being his initiative step; but if such is the case, he is certainly a cool and ready customer, and will in time, unless he repents of his evil ways and reforms, make his mark in the criminal world.

Last night he evidently came to the conclusion that he no longer desired to remain in durance vile, and therefore resolved to do all in his power to seek new fields of venture. Securing a bar of iron from one of the downy couches in his cell, he used the same as a lever to pry off a cell bar and thus gained access to the corridor. In some unknown manner he had also succeeded in securing a spike, and with this as a tool he went to work upon the brick wall, and it did not take a long time for him to open up a way into Clerk Hanley's domain. Up to this time the prisoner's course had been plain sailing, and the indications were that he would soon be free. Unfortunately for him, Officers Earl and Jennings were wandering about, and Earl sauntered into the clerk's office, on a tour of general observation, when his attention was attracted by the noise made, and Withrup was discovered crouched on top of the safe. The officers soon had the youngster handcuffed and in safe quarters, with aspirations for liberty rudely and effectually nipped in the bud.

Sheriff Shaner, of Venango county, Pa., arrived in East Liverpool today, seeking the young forger, as he is wanted in the Keystone state, charged with uttering forged paper to the extent of $80. Withrup waived any rights he may possess in the case, and stated that he was willing to go with the sheriff without requisition papers being secured. He was taken to Smith's Ferry today by Sheriff Shaner and Marshal Gill, where the necessary endorsement of warrant was attended to by a magistrate and was afterward escorted to the noon train and sheriff and prisoner sped away for Emlenton, Pa., where Withrup will be taken before a magistrate and bound over, as it is thought, by Sheriff Shaner, that the father of the accused will not interest himself in defending his son's case. Withrup, Sr., is well-to-do, and comfortably situated in so far as this world's goods are concerned, but is not very bright and therefore not very pushing in business affairs.

Withrup, Jr., claims that his father made him a present of the bicycle which he was riding when he reached East Liverpool, but Sheriff Shaner believes that the wheel was stolen by the prisoner.

It is understood that the bank officials interested in this city will not prosecute their case against young Withrup.

Chief Gill, in speaking of young Withrup today, says that the air of innocence, which is one of his characteristics, is assumed to suit the occasion, and his belief is that he is a cool, keen and clever young rascal.

A Special Meeting.

A special meeting of the Trades and Labor council has been called. All members are requested to be present as there is business of importance to transact tonight.

Will Lead the Meeting.

Capt. Dick Albright will lead the meeting at the Salvation Army, having arrived in the city on the 5 o'clock morning train from Cleveland.

Hughes' Trial.

The trial of Harry Hughes for selling liquor in Pennsylvania was to have been tried in Beaver yesterday, but was postponed indefinitely.

Wire Broken.

The street car wire was down at Jethro this morning, delaying traffic about a half an hour. Nancy Hanks repaired the break.

No Better.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Ketcham, who were hurt in the accident on Monday, are no better today.

The friend of the masses.

The advocate of good wages.

MCKINLEY, patriot, statesman and Christian gentleman.

LAW and order must and shall prevail in our fair city of East Liverpool.
This has become a watchword in the minds of the solid and conservative citizens, irrespective of party lines.
Laws are made to be obeyed, and transgressors must not complain when they receive merited punishment.

BRICE stock is rapidly on the decline
in this grand old Buckeye state.
Voters in Ohio are intensely loyal to their native heath, and they cannot bear patiently with the idea that a New Yorker will dare step into the home arena and arrogate to himself rights which none but citizens have a right to claim or assume.

HE'S A BLOWHARD.

Yes, and his blowing amounts to nothing. He resides in the Third ward and he has been heard to boast,
since the election of John J. Purinton, against whom he worked with all his might, that henceforth he will vote
the Democratic ticket and will take full 50 votes from the Republican party. There is just one part of 50 that he can control, and that's the cipher—himself—and he can't control
it very well.

TURN ON THE LIGHT.

The interest centering in the late councilmanic contest in the Third ward is simply surprising. Ordinarily such a contest would attract but little attention. But there is good reading beneath the lines respecting the battle in question. There are interests connected therewith that are of vital importance to East Liverpool. Matters have been brought to the surface which many parties would have preferred to have kept concealed. Men have assumed to be leaders in local politics, taking this assumption upon themselves in consequence of certain "ropes" which they claimed they alone could pull. The result of this contest has demonstrated that the "ropes" in question are absolutely lacking in strength, and are but brittle and rotten threads. The assumptionists have been relegated to a back seat and forcibly informed, by actions, which speak louder than words, that their services are no longer in demand; that the day of cleaner politics has dawned, and that contemptible cunning and trickery are not, by any means, evidences of brain power and intellect.

HOLMES BACKS DOWN.

He Gives Up and Sends For His Lawyers.

DAMAGING EVIDENCE IS GIVEN.

This and the Tremendous Machinery
of the Commonwealth Evidently Appealed Him—A Picture of His Victim Sits Facing Him in the Courtroom.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 30.—It has become apparent that the picturesque and startling features of H. H. Holmes' carreer are not to be confined to his destructive wanderings over the American continent, for with each successive day comes something still more strange and unexpected.
After fighting tooth and nail single-handed against the tremendous machinery of the commonwealth and the apparently complete chain of evidence which has been forged around him, he has thrown up his hands and sent for his lawyers, Messrs. Shoemaker and Rotan. Then he told the court what he had done, and a reluctant consent to their continuing with the defense was given. There was an impression that this was but another piece of by-play following Holmes' personal failure to catch the sympathy of the court and jury by making himself out a muchwronged man, forced to fight alone
what may prove to be his last battle, in spite of his ignorance of the technicalities of the law and his alleged physical infirmity.

Holmes privately said that the preparation of his case in his cell had kept him up until 4 o'clock in the morning, and then he was roused from bed two hours later. In addition to this, he had not eaten anything from the night before until 1 o'clock in the afternoon.
It was after making this statement that he sent for his counsel. Up to that time there had been a general impression that human nature could not stand the terrible ordeal which he had set for himself, and that if he had persisted in going on with his own case
there would be a breakdown before long.

All day, as he sat in the dock, the eyes of the man he is charged with murdering gazed at him from a large cruyeron portrait placed upright on the district attorney's desk, in full view of the entire court. Next to this was an equally large-sized picture of the daughter, Alice, whose death is also laid on his shoulders. But Holmes did not seem to be affected. His stolid demeanor never deserted him for an instant.

Holmes was allowed another interview with his wife besides the one arranged for by District Attorney Graham.

Jeannette Pitzel, Dessa, the daughter of the dead man, was the first witness called. She is a slender, pale girl of about 17, and was neatly attired in dark gray. She was called merely to identify several large crayons of her father, which she did.

Eugene Smith, who found Pitzel's body in the Callowhill street house on Sept. 4, 1894, then told a detailed story of his discovery, which has been already fully published. He had seen Holmes at Pitzel's house during his lifetime. The witness was present when the corpse of Pitzel was exhumed from the potter's field, and was there first introduced to Holmes. Lawyer Howe of St. Louis, Alice Pitzel, the young daughter, and the insurance officers were there. The body was recognized by the witness as Pitzel's.
Holmes offered $30 to have the corpse cremated. Holmes told the insurance people of the marks of identification.

Dr. William J. Scott, who examined
Pitzel's body after it was discovered, explained the situation of the room and the arrangement of the windows so that the sun's rays should fall upon the corpse and hasten decomposition, together with the position of the burns
on the body, the broken jar, pipe, etc.
He verified the district attorney's assertion that the pipe could not have fallen from the lips of Pitzel to the place where it was found, and that the jar could not have been broken by an explosion, because the pieces of glass were not scattered about the room, but were inside the jar. The doctor dwelt upon the discovery of chloroform in the stomach, and said large quantities of the drug had been used, and from the congested condition of the lungs and the empty heart it was apparent that the man had met a sudden and violent death from chloroform poisoning.

Dr. Mattern corroborated Dr. Scott's testimony and dilated on the ghastly scene at the potter's field, when, in the presence of a half dozen other persons,

including the officers of the swindled
insurance company and the young daughter of the dead man, Holmes took a lancet and coldly and ruthlessly cut and hacked off portions of the corpse of the man he is charged with having murdered.

Other witnesses gave testimony of minor importance.

RIOT VICTIMS BURIED.

A Special Grand Jury at Timb Investigating the Riot.

TIFFIN, O., Oct. 30.—The funerals of Christian Matz and Henry Mutchler, who were shot down by the guards
while storming the county jail last Sunday morning, were not attended with excitement.

The special grand jury will certainly indict Leander J. Martin, alias Miller,
the murderer of City Marshal August Schultz, and the cause of all this trouble, who is now safely imprisoned in the Sandusky jail. The jury will also take cognizance of the riot of Sunday morning.

The ring-leaders of the mob are in hiding. Michael Schmidutz and Marion Lynch are supposed to be concealed in the city. Victor Vidoni, the young Italian, whose impassioned harangue after bloody repute came so near rallying the rioters, has left the county with the announcement that he would not stop before reaching sunny Italy.

Findlay Preacher Sues For Slander.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Oct. 30.—Rev.
J. A. Witham of Findlay, O., has begun suit for slander in the United States court against Rev. H. D. F.
Gaffin of Sunfield, Mich., and claims $5,000 damages. The suit is based on a letter written by Gaffin to Mary B.
Mullen of Lindsey, O., in which it was charged that Witham was "unlearned,
a very poor scholar, yet capable of deceiving as many as most men on earth."
The letter further charged him with immoral conduct of a gross nature, for which he was expelled from the conference.

Bounty Scrip Stealer Sentenced.

DELAWARE, O., Oct. 30.—W. S. Winters of Richwood has been sentenced to the penitentiary for 15 months by Judge Wright for "making out and presenting false and fraudulent claims for bounty scrip" to the county commissioners. There are ten other counts against Winters, each covering $301 worth of bounty scrip presented. This refers to the reported $18,000 steal made by him and James Cooley, now serving a sentence in the penitentiary.

Pair of Swindling Aristocrats.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 30.—A couple, passing as the Count and Countess Scher-her of Germany, and who have been entertained here by society people, are missing. When a constable called at their apartments in a fashionable family hotel to levy an attachment for an unpaid board bill at another house,
their rooms were found to be empty.
They forgot to pay their bills at this hotel also.

A Missionary Meeting.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 30.—The twenty-seventh annual meeting of the woman's board of missions of the interior has opened here.

SMALL OHIO HAPPENINGS.

Mrs. Sarah McKinley of Circleville has brought suit against I. H. Ridgeway for $10,000 for slander.

Ridefer Bros. glassworks, at Bellaire, will open this week. The strike has been settled by a compromise. Two hundred men will go to work.

Governor McKinley granted a pardon to Elmer Shaffer, who was convicted of complicity in the burglary of a freight car at Cambridge, Guernsey county, and sentenced to the state prison for one year.

Marshal Baxter of Van Wert arrested James Poorman, Thomas Poorman and Adam Kushlock, who belong to a gang of toughs who make a living by picking pockets and robbing. Other arrests are looked for soon.

Daniel Dodder of Circleville is suing George Snyder for $300. Dodge claims that he left that amount hid in the storage that he sold Snyder, about a year ago and that Snyder found the money and refuses to refund it.

Alonzo Fletcher of Zanesville, a contracting carpenter, killed himself by shooting. Lunacy proceedings were commenced against him last July, but dropped. His brother cut his throat at the Columbus asylum three years ago.

On the request of Charles Swigart,
a farmer, the police took his two daughters,
aged 17 and 19, from the house of William Ballinger, in Columbus, on the ground that the Ballingers are Spiritualists and have made his daughters believe that they are mediums.

Governor McKinley pardoned Allen
Ward, who is serving a three-year sentence for subornation of perjury. The crime was committed in Morgan county 17 years ago, and Ward was convicted,
but escaped from jail before he was removed to the state prison, and was only captured last spring.

PENSION LIST GROWS.

Lochren Reports an Increase of 860 For the Year.

MODEST DEMANDS OF SOLDIERS.

The Commissioner Says the Real Fighters
Have Been Very Reasonable in Their Claims—Two Hundred and Ninety-Four Frauds Convicted During the Year.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—Commissioner
William L. Lochren of the pension office, in his annual report, makes several pointed suggestions. Under the head "Patriotism and Pensions," he says:

"Those men who enlisted early and fought the battles of the war were not moved by mercenary considerations, and unless actually disabled did not show the haste in applying for pensions manifested by those who enlisted near
the close of the war for large bounties, and did little actual service, and who are now the noisiest in clamoring for more pensions. As compared with this latter class, the real soldiers of the war
have been modest in preferring claims for pensions.

The commissioner says that many disreputable and incompetent men are engaged as pension attorneys, and suggests that none but reputable members of the bar be allowed to practice in pension cases. Dishonest attorneys have given much trouble by systematic criminal and fraudulent practices. Pension payments, the commissioner says, bring large amounts of money into communities, and the fear that the conviction of these attorneys would lessen the influx of money has manifested itself in popular rancor against the special examiners whose investigations secured the conviction of criminals. The special examination division will not require as much money as in the past, for the reason that vigorous prosecution of frauds and crimes has discouraged and measurably stopped frauds. Two hundred and ninety-four were convicted during the year.

The death of many witnesses and the age of claimants has made it quite difficult in many cases lately to obtain proof sufficient for the granting of pensions.

The report shows that the number of pensioners June 30, 1894, was 969,544;
new pensioners added during the year,
39,185; dropped pensioners restored,
4,206; deaths during the year, 29,816;
dropped for other causes, 14,575; making a net increase of pensioners during the year of 860. Pension claims allowed during the year, 39,185; rejected, 103,555; cases pending, 552,210.
The appropriation for the year was $150,000,000, and there was paid during the year $138,807,337. The estimate for pensions for 1897 are $140,000,000 for pension payments; $800,000 for surgeons' fees and $150,000 for clerk hire
at pension agencies, and about $200,000
for other expenses.

Indicted Police Officials Exonerated.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—Justice Ingraham, in the court of oyer and terminer, has dismissed the indictments against ex-Police Captains Doherty and Donohue and ex-Sergeant McKenna. The action was in conformity with a motion made by counsel for the defendants and endorsed by the district attorney. This decision of Justice Ingraham means, in all probability, that the cases against many of the indicted
police officials will be abandoned.

Broke Three World's Records.

CHILLICOTHE, O., Oct. 30.—W. W.
Windle, the bicyclist, has broke three world's records here which were held by Champion Johnson. He made a half mile in 48 seconds flat, Johnson's record being 51 seconds. The quarter was made in 22 4-5 seconds, against Johnson's record of 23, and the third in 30 3-5 seconds, against Johnson's record of 32 2-5.

To Pray For Rain.

SLATER, Mo., Oct. 30.—A large number of citizens has congregated at the Baptist church here for the express purpose of praying for rain. Such a scarcity of water was never before known in this section. Nearly 2,000 tanks of water have been sold here
during the past year.

Prominent Young Man In Jail.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 30.—George O'Brien, who claims to be a son of Martin O'Brien, a wealthy Chicagoan, is in jail here charged with forging a $10 check on the Anglo-California bank. He threatens suicide if convicted.

Armenians and Turks Fighting.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 30.—The Turkish troops and the Armenians have been fighting for three days near Mar-
ash. A number of Angora railway officials, including some German and British subjects, have been captured by brigands at Ilghun.

Insurgents' Progress Checked.

HAVANA, Oct. 30.—According to official advices a large force of insurgents has met with a check while attempting to pass from the province of Santa Clara into the province of Matanzas.

NEGRO ROASTED.

A Murderous Rapist Tortured to Death In Texas.

BURNED AT THE STAKE.

Thousands Witnessed the Sight on the Tyler Public Square.

VICTIM'S HUSBAND FIRED FAGOTS.

The Negro Begged for Mercy, But the Mob Tortured Him In Reply—His Last Prayer on Earth Could Be Heard For Several Minutes—Fifty Minutes of Excruciating Agony Before Death Released the Suffering Victim of a Mob's Vengeance—He Confessed His Crime When Captured—The Officers Overpowered—An Appeal to the Governor for Help Arrived Too Late—The Fiend Horribly Assaulted, Murdered and Mutilated a White Woman.

TYLER, Tex., Oct. 30.—The negro who so brutally murdered Mrs. Bell, who was captured three miles from Kilgore, has been burned at the stake. He offered no resistance when captured. Soon after the officers had him handcuffed a mob of some 200 men, heavily armed, arrived on the scene and demanded immediate possession of the prisoner, which was readily given. The mob then went to the scene of the murder. The crowd continued to gather at the scene of the horrible crime until nearly 2,000 citizens of Tyler and vicinity were there. A few moments before the fiend was brought to the place a meeting was held and a committee was appointed to investigate his identity. Witnesses were summoned and closely interrogated. The result was a thorough identification. In a few moments the officer approached from over the hill, followed by 300 determined, well-armed men. When near the scene the officers were overpowered and disarmed and the negro, Henry Hilliard, brought before the committee. He made a full confession, in substance as follows:

"I was coming down the road and saw Mrs. Bell in the road. She was scared of me, and I knew that if I passed her she would say I tried to rape her, and I concluded that I would rape her and then kill her. I cut her throat and cut her in another place and left." He wrote a note to his wife and gave it to the sheriff. It read as follows: "I am arrested by 'Wig' Smith. You know what they will do with me. If I don't see you any more, good bye."

After his open confession and the thorough identity, a vote was taken as to the mode of punishment. It was unanimously agreed to burn him and it was agreed that he should suffer his penalty on the public square. The march was then made to Tyler and when the head of the line entered the main plaza no less than 7,000 people were assembled.

Large crowds of ladies and children were congregated on the awnings surrounding the public plaza. Wagons, carriages, trees and buildings were converted into grand stands and were thronged.

A scaffold was erected in the center of the square. Wagons laden with kindling wood, coal oil and straw were driven to the scene and placed in position. The negro was then given an opportunity to speak, but his words were inaudible, but when he offered up his last prayer on earth he could be heard for several blocks. He was then lashed to the iron rail that extended through the platform. Mr. Bell, the husband of the murdered lady, applied the match and the flames shot upward, enveloping the brute in sheets of fire. He begged for mercy and it was meted out to him just as he was merciful to the pure, innocent woman whose soul he had sent to heaven.

It was determined to burn him at once, but the fire was frequently quenched, and after the last piece of wood was burned, in a few moments the fire was started again. From the time the match was applied until his death was exactly 50 minutes.

The I. & G. N. southbound train was crowded with people from the towns north. Hundreds of negroes witnessed the execution, and representative negroes expressed their indorsement of the punishment. The officers were powerless and the sheriff wired the governor, but his message was too late. All business houses and factories closed and the big Cotton Belt shops were deserted.

A special from Kilgore tells this story of the crime: Mrs. Bell, who had been visiting her mother a short distance from home, was on her return when met by the negro. What occurred can only be told by the evidence given by the dead body of the lady. The ground showed that she had struggled for her honor, and the condition of the body told by "Jack the Ripper." After outraging the body the negro deliberately cut her throat, and then, taking his knife, ripped up her body. A posse was quickly organized, led by Deputy Smith of Tyler, who, with lanterns in hand and aid d by a hound, tracked the negro to within four miles of this place, where they found him fast asleep in a cotton pen. The negro's clothing was still covered with blood, which he had attempted to wash out.

WRECKED BY ESCAPING GAS.

Thirteen Persons Killed In an Explosion on the Strand, London.

LONDON, Oct. 30.—An explosion supposed to have been caused by escaping gas has wrecked a house, reducing it to atoms, on Church court, Strand. Thirteen persons were killed and many were injured by the collapse of the house. The building consisted of three floors and its tenants were mostly Covent Garden market porters. A deafening report was suddenly heard and then the house collapsed as if made of cards, causing much excitement in the neighborhood.

Two firemen, while searching in the burning embers in an effort to extricate the victims were buried beneath the upper story of an adjoining house, which suddenly collapsed. One of the unfortunate firemen was resuscitated in an injured condition, but the other still remains buried in the ruins.

The A. R. U. After Hill.

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 30.—The indications are that James J. Hill will be compelled to accede to the demands to be made on him by the American Railway union or have visited upon the Great Northern railroad an extensive strike. There is now at Devil's Lake, N. D., a committee of eight revising the schedule for submission to President Hill. The main ground for contention is that a low paid man with a grievance is entitled to as much consideration as a high paid man without a grievance. It is also claimed that Mr. Hill, ever since the union won the great strike in 1894, has been systematically violating the agreement made at that time.

M. E. Missionary Society.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 30.—At the meeting of the M. E. Women's Foreign Missionary society the report of the German work of the society of the United States was presented by Miss Dryer of Chicago, who is secretary of that branch. The report shows that there are 212 German organizations of the society in the United States, with 5,822 members.

Horseless Vehicles Racing.

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—The contest of horseless vehicles has begun on the Washington park racecourse, where for three days carriages propelled by electricity, steam, oil, gas or air will undergo tests preparatory to the final race of Saturday.

Two Murderers Executed.

DANMORA, N. Y., Oct. 30.—George H. Smith, who murdered old Philip Richmeyer at Albany, and Charles N. Davis, who outraged and killed 6-year-old Maggie Shannon, at Cohoes, have been executed in the electric chair at Clinton prison.

Van Allen Is Arrested.

NEWPORT, R. I., Oct. 30.—James J. Van Allen has been arrested on a writ charging alienation of his wife's affections, sworn out by Colonel S. P. Colt, and has given $300,000 bail.

The Cleverland at Woodley.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—The president and Mrs. Cleveland have removed from the White House to Woodley, their fall home.

Voted Down Woman Suffrage.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Oct. 30.—The constitutional convention has voted down the woman suffrage amendment by a most decisive vote of 121 to 26.

Escaped That Penalty.

The proceedings of the summer school at Harvard afford a certain amount of amusement even to the professors and instructors. It is said that the sessions have attracted some very independent as well as gifted young women from a distance. Lately one of the instructors informed his class, chiefly composed of women, that a daily theme would be required to give facility in composition. This seemed to surprise one of the young ladies, who went to the instructor after the session was over, in the presence of others, and said archly and coquettishly, "And what will you do to us if we do not prepare any theme?" "We do not," the professor answered gravely, "employ any form of corporal punishment."—Boston Transcript.

Result of Polltense.

Visitor (to attendant friar in the refectory of a convent)—Are we allowed to smoke here?

Friar—No, sir.

Visitor—Then where do all those stumps of cigars come from that I see lying about?

Friar—From those gentlemen who didn't ask.—Tagliche Rundschau.

A Reminder.

"I do not hesitate, Mr. Stalate," she remarked gently, "to say that you are a young man of excellent habits, but I am very much afraid that you would spend too much of your time away from home."

"Why do you think so?"

"Because," and she yawned a little, "you spend so much time away from home now."—Washington Star.

Heat and the Eyes.

The fact appears that there is a very marked difference in the way temperature is borne by the eyes when it is below 2,000 degrees F. and when above that heat. Up to such a degree a man can look at the metal in a furnace with comparative ease, but before it reaches 3,000 degrees he is compelled to wear colored glasses.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 29.—Martin Warren, aged 10 years and her brother Willie, 8 years old, colored, have been ground to death by a Wabash engine.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Faulk, of College street, a boy.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Snediker, of the West End, a son.

W. H. Sliter shipped his household goods from this place to Castleton, N. Y., yesterday.

The Republican Central committee meet tonight. Various questions will be acted upon.

The Elks held their first social session of the season last night. A pleasant evening was spent.

Editor Thomas Morris is still confined to his bed, under the physician's care, and has been suffering very severely.

The box social given by St. Aloysius' church last night in Bradshaw hall was a complete success, a neat sum being realized.

The Kilmen local, No. 9, have postponed their meeting from Friday night to Saturday, owing to the McKinley meeting.

Invitations are out for a select social to be given by the Young Men's Catholic association in city hall, Wellsville, on Thanksgiving eve, Nov. 27.

There was a great deal of money being wagered on the Corbett-Fitzsimmons prize fight in this city last night. The bets were laid on even money.

There was a report circulated last night that the irrepressible Tommy Humphreys had returned to town. The trustees do not know anything about it yet.

East End people are wondering why council will not act in regard to leveling up the space between the crossings. There is a drop of two feet in some places after stepping off the pavement.

Two local aspirants for distic fame sparred four rounds for points in a well-known club room last night. The encounter resulted in a draw, but the boys say they will keep at it until one of them comes out victorious.

Judge P. C. Young and Hon. R. W. Taylor will address a Republican meeting in Wellsville on next Monday evening. The reputations of the speakers are too well known to doubt but that they will be greeted by a crowded house.

The sudden cold snap has caused business in the township trustees' office to boom, there being nine applicants on Monday and three yesterday. The trustees are looking for good business this winter, judging from the way it has started.

Brigadier Cozens, of Cincinnati, and Staff Captain Parker, of Cleveland, will hold a series of special meetings in the Salvation Army hall on Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 2 and 3. Each meeting will have special features of great interest to all. Be sure to come.

There is a great deal of complaint over the poor telephone service that this town is blessed with. Said a business man today: "I rang up central a dozen times today and received no answer. I think the company should give us better service or shut up shop."

The coal dealers say that we can look for plenty of coal in a short time. The lake trade monopolizes the cars used in transportation of coal and that trade closes in a couple of weeks, which will leave an abundance of cars to transport the great amount of coal awaiting to be shipped.

There is a factional fight on in the Tourist club, an East End chartered organization that has been in existence for a number of years. There have been rumblings of discontent for sometime and the climax was reached last night, when one faction tried to oust the other and form a new organization.

If all reports are true, Thomas Bryan, a popular member of the fire department, will soon take unto himself a bride. An estimable young society lady, it is said, will be the happy one. When asked by his friends if the report is true, he makes a weak denial of the same, which only proves to the boys that the event will soon take place.

The petition circulated by Calcutta road residents, to be presented to council, asking that the road be paved, has been signed by almost all of the property owners. The sentiment is almost unanimous in favor of paving the road and curbing left out. The improvement on the road is being vigorously pushed and the work done so far is meeting with general approval.

The street cars will be bunched at Wellsville on Friday evening, about 6:12, central time, so as to arrive in East Liverpool in good time for the speech of Major McKinley, and in good time for the Wellsville McKinley club to accompany the East Liverpool McKinley club as an escort for the governor. Cars will also be bunched in East Liverpool on Monday night next, in order to accommodate the McKinley club of this city, and citizens in general, who desire to attend the Republican jubilee in Wellsville on that occasion.

LISBON LETTER.

Suit For Heavy Damages—Other Matters of Interest.

LISBON, Oct. 30.—A suit came from the little village of East Rochester, West township, this morning, which is attracting considerable attention. It charges that Mr. Patterson McDonald, a prominent citizen of East Rochester, slandered and maligned Mrs. Ida M. Fox, wife of Harry Fox, through assertions made respecting Mrs. Fox, in the presence of witnesses, about a year since. It is charged that these accusations or charges were made in the presence and hearing of persons who had been warm friends of the prosecutrix, and among whom she had always borne an irreproachable character for chastity and morality. She further alleges that he made such statements as would lead them to think, if they placed credence in his word, that she, a married woman, was guilty of the crime of adultery, and that a big fuss was about to be raised by the husband, who would hold Dr. M. S. Derringer, a practicing physician of East Rochester, responsible for her condition at that time. Plaintiff avers that by reason of these false and scandalous reports, her reputation for chastity and morality had been injured in the community. Damages are laid in the sum of $5,000.

Fourth Assignment.

Wednesday, Nov. 6.—State versus John and William Miller.

Thursday, Nov. 7.—State versus John Skelley and Albert McCord; state versus John Skelley and William Beckwith.

Friday, Nov. 8.—State versus Madison Duke; state versus John Menough, Sr.; state versus William Jennings.

Sentences.

Alex Myler, for selling to minors, was sentenced to pay the sum of $25 and costs and languish in jail five days.

Joseph Dinerstein, of East Liverpool, had name changed to Erbstein by court, and was charged $25 and costs for selling to minors.

Samuel S. King, Lisbon, selling to minors, $25 and costs.

Leroy Rinehart, of East Liverpool, charged with selling to minors, was tried by jury and convicted. Motion was made for a new trial.

Patrick Fitzpatrick, Wellsville, selling on Sunday, two charges, $25 and costs in each case and 30 days confinement in the bastille.

Timothy Burns, East Liverpool, selling to minors, $20 and costs.

Joseph Poole versus Katrina Nader, and others. Judgment for plaintiff for $1,750 due on note, and ordered to sell mortgage on property.

First National bank of East Liverpool versus Burton & Williams. Judgment on note for $627.15.

In the case of the state versus John Robinson, the main witness was Frank Laughlin, of Hookstown. He has apparently been the prosecuting witness in almost all the cases against the saloon keepers. Attorney Brookes caused Laughlin to state that he was in the employ of the officials of East Liverpool, and named R. L. McKenty as one. Squire Manley denied that he knew anything about Laughlin or his movements. Brookes attempted to have Laughlin tell the names of the parties employing him, but the court demurred and told the witness he need not answer. Robinson was acquitted by jury.

David Boyce versus the Mt. Hope College company. Judgment on note for $127.20 and ordered to sell college property and premises within ten days.

The trustees of the First Presbyterian church, Lisbon, this morning petitioned the court for authority to encumber with a mortgage their new church building, now in course of erection, for the purpose of raising the necessary funds to complete the building. The amount required is $5,000.

There is no medicine so often needed in every home and so admirably adapted to the purposes for which it is intended, as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Hardly a week passes but some member of the family has need of it. A toothache or headache may be cured by it. A touch of rheumatism or neuralgia quieted. The severe pain of a burn or scald promptly relieved and the sore healed in much less time than when medicine has to be sent for. A sprain may be promptly treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a cure in about one-third of the time otherwise required. Cuts and bruises should receive immediate treatment before the parts become swollen, which can only be done when Pain Balm is kept at hand. A sore throat may be cured before it becomes serious. A troublesome corn may be removed by applying it twice a day for a week or two. A lame back may be cured and several days of valuable time saved or a pain in the side or chest relieved without paying a doctor bill. Procure a 50 cent bottle at once and you will never regret it. For sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

Unadulterated Gail.

Two men, who bore visible evidence of frequent intercourse with the whisky bottle, called at the trustees' office this morning and asked for money to start them in the notion business. The trustees smiled and told them that they were not doing that kind of work just now.

THE LECTURE COURSE.

Our Citizens Have a Splendid Course in View.

The board of directors of the Young Men's Christian association have taken especial pains this season in securing the very best talent in the land, and our citizens at large should show their appreciation by patronizing the association in a generous manner. The first of the course will be heard at the Grand Opera House tomorrow night, in the person of Major Dane, one of the most eloquent platform talkers in the United States. His subject is "The Great Naval Battles of the Late War," and he portrays them in such a novel and eloquent manner as to win warm plaudits from press and public, wherever the lecture is delivered. You will miss a genuine treat if you fail to hear Major Dane tomorrow night.

Speaks For Itself.

WAR DEPARTMENT.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 28.

Sir:—Agreeably to your request of 16th instant, you are respectfully informed that notice will be given to the board of health of East Liverpool, O., by the engineer's office, as long in advance as possible, whenever the Davis island dam is to be lowered.

Very respectfully,

DANIEL S. LAMONT,

Secretary of War.

To John J. Purinton, Attorney at Law, East Liverpool, O.

Lower Rates to Atlanta.

Three forms of excursion tickets to Atlanta account the Cotton States Exposition are for sale via Pennsylvania Lines. One ticket is good returning twenty days from date of sale, another is good for return trip until January 7th, 1896, and a third good returning ten days. Twenty day tickets and those good to return until Jan. 7th may be obtained any time during the Exposition. The ten day tickets will be sold only on Oct. 26th, Nov. 5th, 15th and 25th, and Dec. 5th and 16th, at special low rates. The fare is exceptionally cheap. For details apply to nearest ticket agent of Pennsylvania Lines or address.

A Strike On.

There is a small strike on at the Dresden pottery. This morning the boys that work in the clay department were notified that hereafter they would have to carry their "scraps" down two flights of stairs instead of dumping the same down the chute from the upper stories. The boys rebelled at this and all quit work, claiming that much hard work is entailed in carrying their loads that distance.

The Little Girl's Band

Will discourse choice selections of music at the Grand tomorrow night, previous to the lecture of Major Dane. The board of directors of the Young Men's Christian association have secured the services of these little ladies for the season, and they will make merry music on each occasion of an entertainment given under the auspices of the association.

Every mother should know that croup can be prevented. The first symptom of true croup is hoarseness. This is followed by a peculiar rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough remedy is given freely as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even after the cough has developed it will prevent the attack. Twenty-five and 50 cent bottles for sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

They Like Cider.

It is evident that the small boys of this city like cider. A farmer left his wagon, with a barrel of cider in it, standing in the alley between Fifth and Sixth streets this afternoon while he went into a store nearby, and in the short time he was gone about 10 small boys drank all the cider they wanted.

"I would rather trust that medicine than any doctor I know of," says Mrs. Hattie Mason, of Chilton, Carter Co., Mo., in speaking of Chamberlain's Cough, Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy. For sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

Republican Central Committee.

The members of this committee will meet at city hall this evening, at 8 o'clock, in order to attend to most important business. Every member is urged to be present.

PRESIDENT.

WINE OF THE MORNING.

Some would quaff their nectar
From carved cups of gold,
That like an open flower,
With satin lips unrolled,
Exhales a liquid fragrance
Of luxury untold.

Some would quaff their nectar
From Venus' poppy lips,
The crimson fount of folly,
Where pulsing passion slips,
In drowsy dreams of sweetness,
Through which time thrills and slips.

But I would quaff the nectar
Whose fount is ever free—
Pure zephyrs from the mountain,
Salt breezes from the sea,
All fraught with morning's fervor,
And wild wings' poetry.

Take all earth's exultation!
Its rosy sweets divine,
Its perfumes and its purple,
Its rare and fair and fine;
The breeze is heaven's brewing,
God's blessing in his wine.

ELECTRICAL ENGINEERING.

Its Recent and Rapid Development Upon the Continent.

Before a recent meeting of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers Mr. H. Ward Leonard delivered an interesting address upon electrical engineering developments in France and England as contrasted with those in America. In its commercial development of electricity America is placed first—in fact, far in advance of the old world countries—but considered from an engineering standpoint Mr. Leonard thinks the United States is losing the lead it has thus far held. He lays the responsibility for this condition of affairs almost entirely at the door of the great electrical monopolies, which have stood in the way of progress, and particularly in preventing the trial of devices and systems of which Europe presents varieties unknown to us. He questions what has been done in this country in the way of electrical engineering development since Edison started his three wire lightning distribution at Sunbury, Pa., in 1888, and Westinghouse established his alternating system with 1,000 volt primary and 50 volt secondary a few years later, and Sprague started the Richmond electric railroad in 1887. There has of course been great extension of installation along these lines.

We have, Mr. Leonard says, the best three wire central station plants in the world. Also the best alternating system, converting from 1,000 to 50 volts, but we have practically no other kind of central station to point to. We are operating 500 volt continuous current electric railways at distances for which 2,000 volts should be used instead of 500, and after investing more money in copper per car than the entire cost of the electrical equipment we still lose twice as much energy as is commercial in the line. In England in alternating systems a three wire secondary is used with 100 volts on each side, and according to Mr. Leonard's view, there was no excuse except patents for a 50 volt two wire secondary originally, and none save the inertia and prejudice of a large corporation for continuing to put in the two wire secondary today.

Rotary transformers are used in several stations in England for a continuous current, high potential multiple arc distribution, the secondary being a three wire system, and some American inventions not patented in England are found to have been utilized in central stations there, while they have been neglected in the land of their inception.—Providence Journal.

A PUZZLED PHILOSOPHER.

Why Should He So Greatly Miss the Things That Are Not?

A philosopher dwelt in a house owned by Cleon. But one day Cleon came to the philosopher and said, "Why have you not sent me the money for last month's rent?" The philosopher said he knew of no reason except that he had no money, having gotten to the bottom of his purse.

"You will have to move out," said Cleon, "to make room for a cordwainer. I know who wants this house and has money."

"Would you, then," said the philosopher, "turn me out when I am so comfortable here, having dwelt in this house 30 years?"

"It is my comfort," said Cleon, "and not yours that I consider."

"Then you prefer a cordwainer, I conclude, to a philosopher."

"No," said Cleon; "a landlord has no preference except to prefer rent money to no rent money."

So the cordwainer moved into the philosopher's house, and the philosopher went to live in the mean hovel of the cordwainer.

But once there, although contented enough, because he was a philosopher, yet he could not avoid the obtrusive facts of the absence of all those things which in his former habitation had grown habitual to him.

This was the first thing that puzzled him—how that which was not could be so obtrusive. "What," said he, "can be so entirely nonexistent as a negation? And yet here I am confronted with an obtrusive negation."

"I miss," said he again, "a chest of drawers, a table, a fireplace and the scenery from the window where I used to sit. I wonder if it will be so after we are driven out from our bodies because death, the final, inexorable landlord, demands a rental we cannot pay."

In time, however, the philosopher gradually ceased being oppressed by the obtrusive memories and grew accustomed to new associations.

"I wonder," said he, "if it will be so when we are immortal—after death at first painful regrets for what we have lost, and in the end nothing of the old but faint memories and a new set of associations. I wonder always and wonder most if philosophy will ever be anything better than clever wondering about the wonderful."—Chicago Open Court.

Animals Understand Hygiene.

Enough is now known of the nature of animal material medica to excite interest and curiosity. There is abundant evidence that many species know and constantly make use of simple remedies for definite disorders, and at the same time observe rules of health to which only the highest civilization or the sanction of religious prescription compels man to conform.

It has been noted that the general condition of animal health, especially in the case of the herbivorous creatures, corresponds not inexactly with that of such tribes as the Somalis, men feeding almost solely on grain, milk, dates and water, living constantly in the open air, moderate in all things and cleanly, because their religion enjoins constant ablutions. Like them, wild animals have no induced diseases. The greater number do not eat to excess. They take regular exercise in seeking their food and drink only at fixed hours. Many of them secure change of climate, one of the greatest factors in health, by migration.

This is not confined to birds and beasts, for the salmon enters the soft water partly to get rid of sea parasites and returns to the sea to recruit after spawning. With change of climate, change of diet and perfectly healthy habits their list of disorders is short, though they readily fall victims to contagious disease just as recently numbers of the Hamran Arabs of the Sudan, as healthy livers and good Mussulmans as the Somalis themselves, friends and fellow hunters with Sir Samuel Baker, perished of contagious fever on the banks of the Nile tributaries.—London Spectator.

It is evident that the small boys of this city like cider. A farmer left his wagon, with a barrel of cider in it, standing in the alley between Fifth and Sixth streets this afternoon while he went into a store nearby, and in the short time he was gone about 10 small boys drank all the cider they wanted.

"I would rather trust that medicine than any doctor I know of," says Mrs. Hattie Mason, of Chilton, Carter Co., Mo., in speaking of Chamberlain's Cough, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

PRESIDENT.

WINE OF THE MORNING.

Some would quaff their nectar
From carven cups of gold,
That like an open flower,
With satin lips unrolled,
Exhale a liquid fragrance
Of luxury untold.

Some would quaff their nectar
From Venus' poppy lips,
The crimson fount of folly,
Where pulsing passion sips,
In drowsy dreams of sweetness,
Through which time thrills and slips.

But I would quaff the nectar
Whose fount is ever fresh—
Pure zephyrs from the mountain,
Salt breezes from the sea,
All fraught with morning's fervor,
And wild wings' poetry.

Take all earth's exultation!
Its rosy sweets divine,
Its perfumes and its purple,
Its rare and fair and fine;
The breeze is heaven's brewing,
God's blessing in his wine.
—Mary Berri Chapman.

ELECTRICAL ENGINEERING.

Its Recent and Rapid Development Upon the Continent.

Before a recent meeting of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers Mr. H. Ward Leonard delivered an interesting address upon electrical engineering developments in France and England as contrasted with those in America. In its commercial development of electricity America is placed first—in fact, far in advance of the old world countries—but considered from an engineering standpoint Mr. Leonard thinks the United States is losing the lead it has thus far held. He lays the responsibility for this condition of affairs almost entirely at the door of the great electrical monopolies, which have stood in the way of progress, and particularly in preventing the trial of devices and systems of which Europe presents varieties unknown to us. He questions what has been done in this country in the way of electrical engineering development since Edison started his three wire lightning distribution at Sunbury, Pa., in 1888, and Westinghouse established his alternating system with 1,000 volt primary and 50 volt secondary a few years later, and Sprague started the Richmond electric railroad in 1887. There has of course been great extension of installation along these lines.

We have, Mr. Leonard says, the best three wire central station plants in the world. Also the best alternating system, converting from 1,000 to 50 volts, but we have practically no other kind of central station to point to. We are operating 500 volt continuous current electric railways at distances for which 2,000 volts should be used instead of 500, and after investing more money in copper per car than the entire cost of the electrical equipment we still lose twice as much energy as is commercial in the line. In England in alternating systems a three wire secondary is used with 100 volts on each side, and according to Mr. Leonard's view, there was no excuse except patents for a 50 volt two wire secondary originally, and none save the inertia and prejudice of a large corporation for continuing to put in the two wire secondary today.

Rotary transformers are used in several stations in England for a continuous current, high potential multiple arc distribution, the secondary being a three wire system, and some American inventions not patented in England are found to have been utilized in central stations there, while they have been neglected in the land of their inception.—Providence Journal.

A PUZZLED PHILOSOPHER.

Why Should He So Greatly Miss the Things That Are Not?

A philosopher dwelt in a house owned by Cleon. But one day Cleon came to the philosopher and said, "Why have you not sent me the money for last month's rent?" The philosopher said he knew of no reason except that he had no money, having gotten to the bottom of his purse.

"You will have to move out," said Cleon, "to make room for a cordwainer. I know who wants this house and has money."

"Would you, then," said the philosopher, "turn me out when I am so comfortable here, having dwelt in this house 30 years?"

"It is my comfort," said Cleon, "and not yours that I consider."

"Then you prefer a cordwainer, I conclude, to a philosopher."

"No," said Cleon; "a landlord has no preference except to prefer rent money to no rent money."

So the cordwainer moved into the philosopher's house, and the philosopher went to live in the mean hovel of the cordwainer.

But once there, although contented enough, because he was a philosopher, yet he could not avoid the obtrusive facts of the absence of all those things which in his former habitation had grown habitual to him.

This was the first thing that puzzled him—how that which was not could be so obtrusive. "What," said he, "can be so entirely nonexistent as a negation?"

And yet here I am confronted with an obtrusive negation.

"I miss," said he again, "a chest of drawers, a table, a fireplace and the scenery from the window where I used to sit. I wonder if it will be so after we are driven out from our bodies because death, the final, inexorable landlord, demands a rental we cannot pay."

In time, however, the philosopher gradually ceased being oppressed by the obtrusive memories and grew accustomed to new associations.

"I wonder," said he, "if it will be so when we are immortal—after death at first painful regrets for what we have lost, and in the end nothing of the old but faint memories and a new set of associations. I wonder always and wonder most if philosophy will ever be anything better than clever wondering about the wonderful."—Chicago Open Court.

Animals Understand Hygiene.

Enough is now known of the nature of animal materia medica to excite interest and curiosity. There is abundant evidence that many species know and constantly make use of simple remedies for definite disorders, and at the same time observe rules of health to which only the highest civilization or the sanction of religious prescription compels man to conform.

It has been noted that the general condition of animal health, especially in the case of the herbivorous creatures, corresponds not inexactly with that of such tribes as the Somalis, men feeding almost solely on grain, milk, dates and water, living constantly in the open air, moderate in all things and cleanly, because their religion enjoins constant ablutions. Like them, wild animals have no induced diseases. The greater number do not eat to excess. They take regular exercise in seeking their food and drink only at fixed hours. Many of them secure change of climate, one of the greatest factors in health, by migration.

This is not confined to birds and beasts, for the salmon enters the soft water partly to get rid of sea parasites and returns to the sea to recruit after spawning. With change of climate, change of diet and perfectly healthy habits their list of disorders is short, though they readily fall victims to contagious disease just as recently numbers of the Hamran Arabs of the Sudan, as healthy livers and good Musulmans as the Somalis themselves, friends and fellow hunters with Sir Samuel Baker, perished of contagious fever on the banks of the Nile tributaries.—London Spectator.
